

Namaskar our respected family & friends,
Greetings from Alpine Explore Nepal family

Hope this mail message will finds you all well.

It has been sometime that I personally not being able to be in touch with our respected family and friends so I am here to drop few lines with the seasonal greetings and to keep in touch with our respected friends.

Ministers & Official persons from government at Nalang

Mass during Nalang Village Festival

First of all, I am very happy to share good news that we have recently organized Nalang village festival, from 27th to 29th Jun. We had our chief guest from Nepal government Minister of Irrigation, Agriculture, and tourism Ministry Secretaries, parliamentary members and all the District Government chiefs. Our coffee farm has been highlighted and was appreciated by our chief guest about the coffee farm project which has been one the model project of the country.

Flowering Coffee Plants

Now we have monsoon season in Nepal and I have been involved in planting coffee so we have now completed all our coffee plantations. I am pleased to acknowledge you that we have harvested our first coffee from our farm and have celebrated first cup of coffee with His Honorable Norwegian Ambassador.

His Excellency Norwegian Ambassador

Now we have over 50,000 coffee plants in our farm where about fifteen thousand coffee bushes are blooming and remaining others are growing healthy.

Coffee Garden

The news about coffee farm has been published on Travel Nepal Magazine and we have attached the news so hope you will be very happy to read it. Please find the news on an attachment.

Touristic season is slowing down for Nepal section. Though we have some groups travelling to Transhimalaya region like Dolpo and Tibet as it is the best time for travelling on these High Himalayan regions.

Enjoying morning cup of coffee

We hope to meet you again with your family and friends on your next trip and experience visiting to coffee farms and surrounding your holidays in Asia. If you have any plan to travel around Asia, please feel free to contact us, we are always happy to provide you information on your next journey to Asia again.

This is all for now and hope to hear from you.

Wish you a very good time.

With warm regards
